DAPPA

Breaking the rules, being rebellious, and going against the grain is what Hip Hop is all about. If that's the case then New Orleans Emcee DAPPA has read the book cover to cover. Dappa's style and vocal prowess has washed over New Orleans like early morning dew. His infectious hooks and smooth melodies make him an instant attention getter. Dappa, whether he's singing or rapping says what most people today just can't put into words. From songs like "Get Away" or "Running" to trying to explain to females you can trust him with "You Got Me", Dappa has a lot to talk about.

Thrust into the rap game at 16 by his cousin and producer U-P charged to watch over him following his father's death, Dappa has taken control of his destiny and now commands his future. In a short span of time Dappa has gone from mixtapes such as "F@#K OUTTA HEA" & "Chocolate City Vol. 1 & 2" and stellar remixes of Rihanna's "Umbrella" and Sean Kingston's "Beautiful Girls" to now being President of Palmyra Street Productions LLC as well as being produced by super producer U-P and Multi-Grammy® Winner Deezele.

In 2011, Dappa joined three of the dopest lyricists from the city of New Orleans to form the "SuperGroup", THE RAP PACK consisting of The Show, K. Gates, Y. Luck and Dappa. This quartet is a force to be reckoned with. Brace yourself, Dappa is about to take you places never before imagined in New Orleans Hip Hop.

Dappa is known for creating music that appeals to a wide audience from Urban Radio to any POP top 40 station. Now as a seasoned artist, Dappa has the talent, the production and the team to truly become a household name on his quest for greatness.
